wings of the black scavengers of the battlefield. There were two spots, one on the east and the other on the west of the harbor entrance, which were denuded of the foliage. The hilltops seem literally blown away. These marked the places where the 200-pound charges of guncotton blown by the Vesuvius had landed.

Hobson and His Men Probably Killed. An ominous token of death flew from Morro castle. Spain's saffron flag was half masted for several hours. The significance of this is not known. It is not customary to half mast flags, but possibly some Spanish leader was killed by the heavy fire of our guns, though some officers of the squadron believe that the flag was half masted as a notification to the Americans that Lieutenant Hobson and his brave men were dead. If such is the case they must have been wantonly murdered. The Spanish might seek to lay their death to the bombardment, but not a shot from the American ships struck the fortress.

Neither Admiral Sampson or Commodore Schley believe that Lieutenant Hobson and his party have been killed. We have seventeen prisoners taken at Guantanamo, including a lieutenant, besides a number in the United States for reprisals or exchange.

There was evident demoralization among the Spanish troops during the bombardment. Officers could be seen, with drawn swords, driving the men to the guns, but even they could not be forced to stay so long as our guns were directed at them. The 15 minutes' night work of the Vesuvius had shattered their nerves.

It is believed by some that the 13-inch projectile fired from the Texas, which was reported to have exploded the powder magazine in one of the western batteries, did not fall in the battery, but went beyond and blew up one of the ships in the harbor.

A dramatic incident of the bombardment was the act of a Spanish officer, who bravely ran along the parapet under a heavy fire encouraging the men to stand by their guns. Shot and shell rained about him, and after one terrific explosion he was seen no more and the parapet had disappeared. He could not have escaped death.

From the foretop of the Brooklyn, 2,900 yards distant, the men in the grounds could be noticed, but a minute later dust and flying debris would take their places, and when the smoke cleared away, only a spot of red earth could be seen—guns and gunners had been swept away. It was the most deadly and destructive bombardment of the war thus far. Scarcely a shot from the big guns of the squadron went astray. The aim of our gunners was superb and not only were the coast forts annihilated, but the batteries on Cayo Smith, up the harbor, were destroyed. Had all the ships used smokeless powder, as did the New Orleans, there would remain no signs of guns or fortifications to indicate that there had ever been any defenses there.

There were no casualties in the fleet, although the ships held a fixed position, as if inviting the Spaniards to fire upon them. The words of Rear Admiral Sampson were: "First silence the batteries on the shore and then continue firing until the fortifications are reduced."

In thirty-eight minutes the order was given to cease firing and the message went to each ship from the admiral: "Well done," and the officers and men turned in for breakfast.

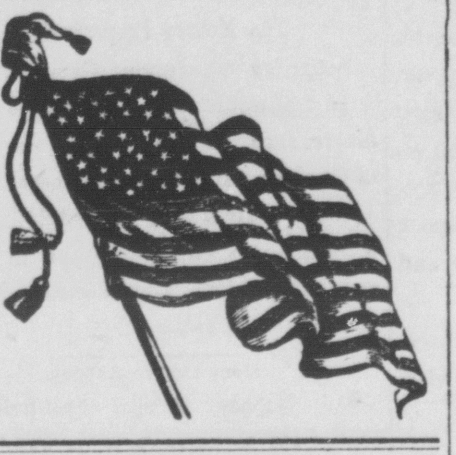

The first shot of the New York landed full and fair on the top of the hills to the east, where the gunners were already at work erecting new pieces. The earth seemed to rise in a cloud, and when the 13-inch shells of the Iowa and the 13-inch batteries of the Oregon landed squarely and fairly a great cheer went up from the ships.

The Western squadron got into line and began firing before the eastern one did, and the effect of the shots could be plainly seen. The Spanish gunners at the batteries could be noted and a quick fire was returned, but only for a brief time did they withstand the terrible assault of the fleet.

CUBAN PILOT'S TALK. Says He Entered Santiago and Found a Garrison of 15,000 Men. Key West, June 20.—Juan Santos, a Cuban pilot, who arrived here on board an American warship, reports that he entered Santiago de Cuba and found there a Spanish garrison of 15,000 men. He adds that the vessels of Admiral Cervera's fleet lying at that port are the armored cruisers Christobal Colon, Vizcaya and Almirante Oquendo, two small cruisers, two torpedo boats and the Reina Mercedes, which had been stripped of her guns to reinforce the land batteries.

He says that the Spanish war vessels were fully manned, but that the crews were discouraged and disappointed. He thinks that Morro castle is the only fort not silenced by Rear Admiral Sampson, he says, keeps a steady watch and opens fire as soon as work is attempted by the Spaniards on shore. Morro castle, he alleges, where Lieutenant Hobson and the other brave men of the Merrimac are now confined, was not fired upon, the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius sending her projectiles over the bluff into the channel. The land approaches to Santiago de Cuba are heavily guarded, but the artillery is insignificant.

Other information given by the pilot is that one Spanish colonel and 17 men, who were taken prisoners by the Cubans at Guantanamo, are on the collier Al-

renda and have been offered in exchange for Lieutenant Hobson and his companions.

SECOND LIEUTENANTS.

Men Who Will Be Appointed to Positions in the Regular Army.

Washington, June 20.—Adjutant General Corbin has made public the names of the 195 young men who have been selected for appointment as second lieutenants in the regular army, to fill vacancies created by the act of congress adopting the three battalion organization for the infantry arm of the service and the addition of one second lieutenant to all batteries when filled to war strength. Each of the 195 men selected will be obliged to undergo an examination that will be a thorough test of his mental and physical qualifications for the army service. Those who pass the examination will be nominated by the president to the senate.

The following have been selected from Indiana and Kentucky:

Indiana—Harry R. Campbell, mechanical and electrical engineer; Victor Garigus, private Indiana volunteer; Elijah B. Martindale, Jr., Graduate Culver Military academy; Ivers W. Leonard, captain Indiana volunteer; William Levis Hodgkins, honor graduate Purdue University.

Kentucky—John K. Proctor, Jr., Benjamin H. Watkins, graduate Williamsburg academy of Kentucky; J. T. Geary, honor graduate Agricultural and Mechanical college.

New Typesetting Machine.

Louisville, Ky., June 20.—Frank B. Converse, of this city, has invented a typesetting machine. It differs from the linotype, as it sets up a line in individual type, instead of molding it, and also has an automatic spacer or "justifier," which sets a line any length desired.

TERRIBLE SITUATION

Population of Caimanera Starving and Famine Stricken.

WILL BURN THEIR HOMES

Streets Strewn With Oil and Straw For That Purpose.

PREPARED TO FLEE

Lieutenant Colonel Huntington Hourly Expects an Attack From a Spanish Force Three Thousand Five Hundred Strong—Iowa Has Joined the Fleet in Guantanamo Bay—Cuban Aid Has Proved Highly Valuable.

Off Guantanamo, June 18, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 20.—Cuban scouts reported yesterday that the inhabitants of Caimanera have strewn the streets with straw and oil, with the intention of destroying the city and fleeing to the hills.

Caimanera lies about four miles up the bay from Camp McCalla, under the guns of the American ships, and the situation is desperate. Starving and famine stricken, convinced of the ultimate triumph of the American arms and without faith in the protection of the Spanish soldiery, the people are determined to leave their homes in ashes behind them and seek safety in the mountains of the north. The scouts declare that the story is accurate, and say that every building in town is being rapidly prepared for the torch.

The situation of the besieged is a fearful one. The people are eating horses and mules and are scouring the hills for fruits and herbs. Occasionally brief bombardments by the American fleet leaves the helpless citizens horror-stricken, no preparations for defense being made.

It is also stated that the Spanish gunboat at Caimanera has been loaded with inflammables and will be burned with the city, her commander declaring that she will never become an American prize.

The scouts also say that the Spanish soldiers are in almost as complete a state of panic as are the civilians and that they could easily be induced to surrender. Some of the prisoners taken by the marines also say they believe the Spanish troops are on the verge of surrender, owing to the lack of food.

Captain McCalla, of the cruiser Marblehead, and Lieutenant Colonel Huntington, in command of the marines, are not to be sure, however, of the reported Spanish rout. They received information yesterday that a general attack by a force of 3,500 Spanish guerrillas on Camp McCalla is contemplated within a night or two. Every preparation was made last night for an expected assault.

When the despatch boat Dandy arrived in Guantanamo harbor at 8 o'clock, the hills about the marine camp were brilliant under the shifting rays of the searchlights of the Marblehead, Dolphin and Scorpion and the marines were lying in the rifle pits, at the guns, ready and anxious for battle, but the night passed without the firing of a shot. The same watchful care was exercised to-day, as Captain McCalla is convinced that an attack is likely to occur at any moment.

The Iowa joined the fleet here yesterday and later the admiral came over on the flagship to inspect the fortifications and confer with Captain McCalla and Lieutenant Colonel Huntington.

The coast in the vicinity of Guantanamo is dotted with the bright hued Cuban flag. Numerous camps of the insurgents, which have been established along the beach between Santiago and this place, are used by the admiral as means of communication with the Cubans in the interior. The aid which these men have given has proved highly valuable to the Americans.

Another body of five Spaniards was captured yesterday by Ensign A. A. Pratt of the Marblehead. While cruising in a steam launch outside the bay he picked up a 50-foot sloop containing a Spanish captain by name of Torres and four sailors.

They said they were on their way to Guantanamo to get a supply of oil for the lighthouse at Cape Maysi, but papers found on the sloop proved that they had been sent to obtain information relative to the American forces. The crew of the sloop asserted that they had been ill fed and frightfully ill-treated by the Spanish commander of the Cape Maysi forces.

There was a brief bombardment of a blockhouse up the bay by the battleship Oregon yesterday, and it is believed that during the firing at least a score of Spaniards were killed. Scouting parties report that the blockhouse was completely destroyed, but that they were unable to discover any bodies, the remains of soldiers who had been killed probably having been carried off by their comrades.

MANILA.

Unconfirmed Report That the City Has Capitulated.

Paris, June 20.—The Madrid correspondent of the Temps says that it is reported there that Manila has capitulated, though the ministers have not received any news to that effect.

The correspondent also says that Senator Romero Giron, the minister of colonies, states that if Governor General Augusti has made over his power to Gen. Sandares to govern Manila, General Sandares will attempt a sortie.

According to the same authority the Spanish consuls at Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore have been ordered to organize at any cost the most rapid communication with the portions of the Archipelago still under Spanish authority.

NOTED VETERAN.

Dr. M. David Logan, Who Served Under Morgan, Dead.

Danville, Ky., June 20.—Dr. M. David Logan died at the old Logan homestead, five miles from Danville, Saturday. He was 76 years of age, and had never married. Dr. Logan served in the Mexican war and in the war of the rebellion rose to a lieutenant colonelcy under General John Morgan. He was a prisoner at Johnson's Island, and also at Columbus, O. He and two of his brothers formed a part of the escort of Jefferson Davis at his attempted escape, and offered to conduct him out of the United States.

HOT SKIRMISH.

Sampson's Launches Run Into a Hornet's Nest.

Off Santiago, June 18, via Kingston, June 20.—Several attempts to land landing places for the United States troops within a distance of two miles west of Santiago have demonstrated, along with previous inquiries to the eastward, that the shore for 15 miles is lined with Spaniards. While this will not prevent a landing close to Santiago, it may entail considerable delay, as the surrounding country must be thoroughly shelled and cleared before the troops can land in safety.

Yesterday at daylight the launches of the New York and Massachusetts reconnoitered the shore between Cabanas, two miles west of the entrance of Santiago harbor, and Guayacano, two miles further west, both of which points lie east of the range of mountains surrounding Santiago bay. The launches pushed their noses into a hornet's nest. The brush was fairly alive with Spanish troops, infantry and cavalry, and the fire opened upon the launches was so fierce that their retreat had to be covered by the Vixen and the Texas.

When the Texas asked permission of Commodore Schley to take a hand, the commodore seized the megaphone and shouted to Captain Phillips, "Yes, go in and give 'em — Jack."

The Texas landed several 4-inch shells on the battery at Cabanas, completely demolishing it.

Lieutenant Sharpe of the Vixen and Lieutenant Harlow, in command of the launches, were both complimented by Admiral Sampson for gallantry.

It is believed that the insurgents, who are in forces under the command of General Garcia about 15 miles west, will render effective aid in driving the Spanish skirmishers off the shore.

SUNDAY AT CHICKAMAUGA.

It Was Really a Day of Rest Among the Soldiers.

Chickamauga National Military Park, Ga., June 20.—Yesterday was an exceptionally beautiful day at Camp Thomas, and a cool breeze continuously stirred made park life a delight. It was significantly a day of rest among the soldiers. All drills were omitted and the Sabbath was generally observed. In this respect the day was somewhat in contrast with many of its predecessors. The chaplains of the various regiments held services and the Y. M. C. A. and evangelistic cohorts were actively at work. The reverence with which these services were listened to and the general good order which prevailed among the camps were significant of a high moral tone which pervaded the entire army.

The soldiers were forbidden to congregate at points of amusement and practically all remained in camp with the exception of a considerable number who had permission to spend the day on Lookout mountain.

SPANISH INFORMERS.

One Believed to Be in Camp Merritt, San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 20.—The greatest excitement prevailed in Camp Merritt over the report that leaked out to the effect that one of the most noted and daring of Spanish spies had been captured in camp. It was reported that the men had enlisted in one of the regular regiments of infantry.

An investigation of the rumor revealed the fact that the spy has not as yet been apprehended, but it is known that the government has recently received reliable information that leads it to believe that Spain has informers in Camp Merritt.

It can be reliably stated that the government fears a certain well known informer, whose name for the present is withheld. It is known that the government has information that leads it to believe that this man is in San Francisco with the purpose of enlisting in one of the regiments, even if he has not already done so.

The man is said to have been secretly employed by De Lome, when he was in Washington, and is the direct agent of Sagasta.

Adjutant General Corbin.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Adjutant General Corbin characterizes as absurd the published report that he would be given an important command at the front and in a measure would succeed Gen. Miles in the direction of military affairs. Such a thing, he said, had never entered his mind or so far as he knew that of any one else in authority. He had never heard it intimated from any reliable source that Gen. Miles might be relieved of some of his duties, and he did not believe that such a thing was ever considered. And even were it true it was beyond reason, he added, that his (Corbin's) position would be changed in consequence.

General Miles.

Washington, June 20.—With reference to the report that he is to take personal command of the American expedition which is to be sent to Porto Rico, General Miles said yesterday that the matter of his future movement was in this respect too indefinite to discuss. "I expect to go to both Porto Rico and Cuba at some time, but I cannot now say when."

Belief That They Have Been Murdered.

Spain's Saffron Flag Lowered to Half Mast Over Morro Castle as a Notice to Americans That They Are Dead—A Graphic Description of the Latest Attack on the Harbor Defenses—Spanish Officer's Brave Act in Urging His Men to Stand by Their Guns—No Casualties on Any of the American Ships—Sunday at Chickamauga—Spanish Informers at San Francisco—Appointments from Indiana and Kentucky to the Regular Army.

Off Santiago de Cuba, June 18, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 20.—A careful inspection of the fortifications along the crest of the hills defending Santiago harbor since the bombardment Thursday morning shows that the American gunners spread wreck and ruin everywhere. Some of the batteries were demolished beyond repair. The vultures, which circle on level wings over the hills as thick as sparrows around a chimney for hours after the firing ceased, furnished gruesome evidence of the fatality among the Spanish soldiers. Hundreds of troops could be seen from the ships digging in mounds of earth piled up by the explosion of the projectiles.

ONE OF THE OREGON'S 13-INCH BEAUTIES. The heavy guns for bodies, while their heads were fanned by the

In olden times mistaken enthusiasts used to inflict upon themselves all manner of painful and horrible tortures. Men scourged themselves with whips and hot irons, and rubbed vinegar in their eyes and were hair-cloth next to their skin day and night.

Nowadays such cruel tortures are discounted. Nevertheless, men and women go on torturing themselves, and in a different and more serious manner than of old. They neglect their health, and neglected health means physical torture of the worst description. It means slow starvation. Because a man forces food into a weak and impaired stomach, it does not follow that he feeds his body. The life-giving elements of the food taken into an impaired stomach are not assimilated and the blood. Instead, the impurities of the sluggish liver and bowels are taken up and carried to all parts of the body. The consequence is that the body is not only starved but poisoned. The immediate result is physical suffering from which the old time zealot would have drawn back in horror. The final result is disease and death. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a scientific remedy that acts according to natural laws. It is not a violent spur to nature or a mere artificial appetizer. It creates appetite, makes the assimilation of the food perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It builds up firm muscular flesh. It cures nervous exhaustion, debility, sleeplessness and all the ailments that follow in their train. It is a true medicine store. Accept no substitute. It may be represented as "Just as good."

"I can heartily recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets to anyone troubled with indigestion and torpid liver," writes M. G. Crider, Esq., of Leonard, Marlow Co., Ky. "My disease was chronic. I could not walk nor help myself. I could not eat anything but I caused a horrible distress and gnawing in my stomach. I have taken four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of your 'Pleasant Pellets' and can work all day."

wings of the black scavengers of the battlefield. There were two spots, one on the east and the other on the west of the harbor entrance, which were denuded of the foliage. The hilltops seem literally blown away. These marked the places where the 200-pound charges of gun cotton blown by the Vesuvius had landed.

Hobson and His Men Probably Killed.

An ominous token of death flew from Morro castle. Spain's saffron flag was half masted for several hours. The significance of this is not known. It is not customary to half mast flags, but possibly some Spanish leader was killed by the heavy fire of our guns, though some officers of the squadron believe that the flag was half masted as a notification to the Americans that Lieutenant Hobson and his brave men were dead. If such is the case they must have been wantonly murdered. The Spanish might seek to lay their death to the bombardment, but not a shot from the American ships struck the fortress.

Neither Admiral Sampson or Commodore Schley believe that Lieutenant Hobson and his party have been killed. We have seventeen prisoners taken at Guantanamo, including a lieutenant, besides a number in the United States for reprisals or exchange.

There was evident demoralization among the Spanish troops during the bombardment. Officers could be seen, with drawn swords, driving the men to the guns, but even they could not be forced to stay so long as our guns were directed at them. The 15 minutes' night work of the Vesuvius had shattered their nerves.

It is believed by some that the 13-inch projectile fired from the Texas, which was reported to have exploded the powder magazine in one of the western batteries, did not fall in the battery, but went beyond and blew up one of the ships in the harbor.

A dramatic incident of the bombardment was the act of a Spanish officer, who bravely ran along the parapet under a heavy fire encouraging the men to stand by their guns. Shot and shell rained about him, and after one terrific explosion he was seen no more and the parapet had disappeared. He could not have escaped death.

From the foretop of the Brooklyn, 2,900 yards distant, the men in the grounds could be noticed, but a minute later dust and flying debris would take their places, and when the smoke cleared away, only a spot of red earth could be seen—guns and gunners had been swept away. It was the most deadly and destructive bombardment of the war thus far. Scarcely a shot from the big guns of the squadron went astray. The aim of our gunners was superb and not only were the coast forts annihilated, but the batteries on Cayo Smith, up the harbor, were destroyed. Had all the ships used smokeless powder, as did the New Orleans, there would remain no signs of guns or fortifications to indicate that there had ever been any defenses there.

There were no casualties in the fleet, although the ships held a fixed position, as if inviting the Spaniards to fire upon them. The words of Rear Admiral Sampson were: "First silence the batteries on the shore and then continue firing until the fortifications are reduced."

In thirty-eight minutes the order was given to cease firing and the message went to each ship from the admiral: "Well done;" and the officers and men turned in for breakfast.

The first shot of the New York landed full and fair on the top of the hills to the east, where the gunners were already at work erecting new pieces. The earth seemed to rise in a cloud, and when the 13-inch shells of the Iowa and the 13-inch beauties of the Oregon landed squarely and fairly a great cheer went up from the ships.

The Western squadron got into line and began firing before the eastern one did, and the effect of the shots could be plainly seen. The Spanish gunners at the batteries could be noted and a quick fire was returned, but only for a brief time did they withstand the terrible assault of the fleet.

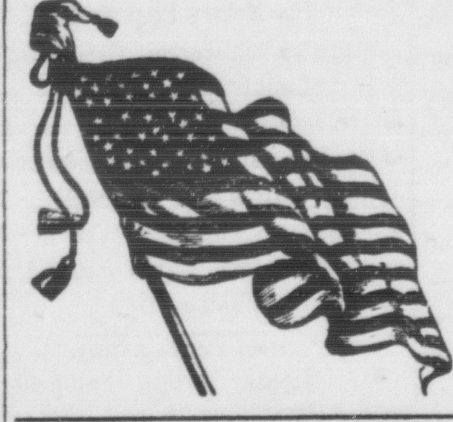

CUBAN PILOT'S TALK.

Says He Entered Santiago and Found a Garrison of 15,000 Men.

Key West, June 20.—Juan Santos, a Cuban pilot, who arrived here on board an American warship, reports that he entered Santiago de Cuba and found there a Spanish garrison of 15,000 men. He adds that the vessels of Admiral Cervera's fleet lying at that port are the armored cruisers Christobal Colon, Vizcaya and Almirante Oquendo, two small cruisers, two torpedo boats and the Reina Mercedes, which had been stripped of her guns to reinforce the land batteries.

He says that the Spanish war vessels were fully manned, but that the crews were discouraged and disappointed. He thinks that Morro castle is the only fort not silenced by Rear Admiral Sampson, who, he says, keeps a steady watch and opens fire as soon as work is attempted by the Spaniards on shore. Morro castle, he alleges, where Lieutenant Hobson and the other brave men of the Merrimac are now confined, was not fired upon, the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius sending her projectiles over the bluff into the channel. The land approaches to Santiago de Cuba are heavily guarded, but the artillery is insignificant.

Other information given by the pilot is that one Spanish colonel and 17 men, who were taken prisoners by the Cubans at Guantanamo, are on the collier Alreads and have been offered in exchange for Lieutenant Hobson and his companions.

SECOND LIEUTENANTS.

Men Who Will Be Appointed to Positions in the Regular Army.

Washington, June 20.—Adjutant General Corbin has made public the names of the 195 young men who have been selected for appointment as second lieutenants in the regular army, to fill vacancies created by the act of congress adopting the three battalion organization for the infantry arm of the service and the addition of one second lieutenant to all batteries when filled to war strength. Each of the 195 men selected will be obliged to undergo an examination that will be a thorough test of his mental and physical qualifications for the army service. Those who pass the examination will be nominated by the president to the senate.

The following have been selected from Indiana and Kentucky:

Indiana—Harry R. Campbell, mechanical and electrical engineer; Victor Garigus, private Indiana volunteer; Elijah B. Martindale, Jr., Graduate Culver Military academy; Ivers W. Leonard, captain Indiana volunteers; William Leis Hodgkins, honor graduate Purdue University.

Jellito Coal Mines.

Louisville, June 20.—All the coal mines in the Jellito district will soon be transferred to an English syndicate. At a meeting between those interested in the property and representatives of British capital in Knoxville last Friday the deal was practically consummated, and all that remains now to be done is to receive the money and transfer the deeds.

Population of Caimanera Starving and Famine Stricken.

WILL BURN THEIR HOMES

Streets Strewn With Oil and Straw For That Purpose.

PREPARED TO FLEE

Lieutenant Colonel Huntington Hourly Expects an Attack From a Spanish Force Three Thousand Five Hundred Strong—Iowa Has Joined the Fleet in Guantanamo Bay—Cuban Aid Has Proved Highly Valuable.

Off Guantanamo, June 18, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 20.—Cuban scouts reported yesterday that the inhabitants of Caimanera have strewn the streets with straw and oil, with the intention of destroying the city and fleeing to the hills.

Caimanera lies about four miles up the bay from Camp McCalla, under the guns of the American ships, and the situation is desperate. Starving and famine stricken, convinced of the ultimate triumph of the American arms and without faith in the protection of the Spanish soldiery, the people are determined to leave their houses in ashes behind them and seek safety in the mountains of the north. The scouts declare that the story is accurate, and say that every building in town is being rapidly prepared for the torch.

The situation of the besieged is a fearful one. The people are eating horses and mules and are scouring the hills for fruits and herbs. Occasionally small bombardments by the American fleet leaves the helpless citizens horror-stricken, no preparations for defense being made.

It is also stated that the Spanish gunboat at Caimanera has been loaded with inflammables and will be burned with the city, her commander declaring that she will never become an American prize.

The scouts also say that the Spanish soldiers are in almost as complete a state of panic as are the civilians and that they could easily be induced to surrender. Some of the prisoners taken by the marines also say they believe the Spanish troops are on the verge of surrender, owing to the lack of food.

Captain McCalla, of the cruiser Marblehead, and Lieutenant Colonel Huntington, in command of the marines, are not to be sure, however, of the reported Spanish rout. They received information yesterday that a general attack by a force of 3,500 Spanish guerrillas on Camp McCalla is contemplated within a night or two. Every preparation was made last night for an expected assault.

When the despatch boat Dandy arrived in Guantanamo harbor at 8 o'clock, the hills about the marine camp were brilliant under the shifting rays of the searchlights of the Marblehead, Dolphin and Scorpion and the marines were lying in the rifle pits, at the guns, ready and anxious for battle, but the night passed without the firing of a shot. The same watchful care was exercised today, as Captain McCalla is convinced that an attack is likely to occur at any moment.

The Iowa joined the fleet here yesterday and later the admiral came over on the flagship to inspect the fortifications and confer with Captain McCalla and Lieutenant Colonel Huntington.

The coast in the vicinity of Guantanamo is dotted with the bright hued Cuban flag. Numerous camps of the insurgents, which have been established along the beach between Santiago and this place, are used by the admiral as means of communication with the Cubans in the interior. The aid which these men have given has proved highly valuable to the Americans.

Another body of five Spaniards was captured yesterday by Ensign A. A. Pratt of the Marblehead. While cruising in a steam launch outside the bay he picked up a 30-foot sloop containing a Spanish captain by name of Torres and four sailors.

They said they were on their way to Guantanamo to get a supply of oil for the lighthouse at Cape Mayai, but papers found on the sloop proved that they had been sent to obtain information relative to the American forces. The crew of the sloop asserted that they had been ill fed and frightfully ill-treated by the Spanish commander of the Cape Mayai forces.

There was a brief bombardment of a blockhouse up the bay by the battleship Oregon yesterday, and it is believed that during the firing at least a score of Spaniards were killed. Scouting parties report that the blockhouse was completely destroyed, but that they were unable to discover any bodies, the remains of soldiers who had been killed probably having been carried off by their comrades.

MANILA.

Unconfirmed Report That the City Has Capitulated.

Paris, June 20.—The Madrid correspondent of the Temps says that it is reported there that Manila has capitulated, though the ministers have not received any news to that effect.

The correspondent also says that Senor Romero Giron, the minister of colonies, states that if Governor General Augusti has made over his power to Gen. Sandares to govern Manila, General Sandares will attempt a sortie.

According to the same authority the Spanish consuls at Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore have been ordered to organize at any cost the most rapid communication with the portions of the Archipelago still under Spanish authority.

The Spanish Squadron.

Gibraltar, June 20.—The captain of a British steamer which has arrived here says that he sighted the Spanish squadron off Cape Gata, a promontory of Spain, on the coast of Granada, forming the eastern limit of the Gulf of Algeria.

NOTED VETERAN.

Dr. M. David Logan, Who Served Under Morgan, Dead.

Danville, Ky., June 20.—Dr. M. David Logan died at the old Logan homestead, five miles from Danville, Saturday. He was 76 years of age, and had never married. Dr. Logan served in the Mexican war and in the war of the rebellion rose to a lieutenant colonelcy under General John Morgan. He was a prisoner at Johnson's Island, and also at Columbus, O. He and two of his brothers formed a part of the escort of Jefferson Davis at his attempted escape, and offered to conduct him out of the United States.

HOT SKIRMISH.

Sampson's Launches Run Into a Hornet's Nest.

Off Santiago, June 18, via Kingston, June 20.—Several attempts to find landing places for the United States troops within a distance of two miles west of Santiago have demonstrated, along with previous inquiries to the eastward, that the shore for 15 miles is lined with Spaniards. While this will not prevent a landing close to Santiago, it may entail considerable delay, as the surrounding country must be thoroughly shelled and cleared before the troops can land in safety.

Yesterday at daylight the launches of the New York and Massachusetts reconnoitered the shore between Cabanas, two miles west of the entrance of Santiago harbor, and Guayaguan, two miles further west, both of which points lie east of the range of mountains surrounding Santiago bay. The launches pushed their noses into a hornet's nest. The brush was fairly alive with Spanish troops, infantry and cavalry, and the fire opened upon the launches was so fierce that their retreat had to be covered by the Vixen and the Texas.

When the Texas asked permission of Commodore Schley to take a hand, the commodore seized the microphone and shouted to Captain Phillips, "Yes, go in and give 'em — Jack."

The Texas landed several 4-inch shells on the battery at Cabanas, completely demolishing it.

Lieutenant Sharpe of the Vixen and Lieutenant Harlow, in command of the launches, were both complimented by Admiral Sampson for gallantry.

It is believed that the insurgents, who are in forces under the command of General Garcia about 15 miles west, will render effective aid in driving the Spanish skirmishers off the shore.

SUNDAY AT CHICKAMAUGA.

It Was Really a Day of Rest Among the Soldiers.

Chickamauga National Military Park, Ga., June 20.—Yesterday was an exceptionally beautiful day at Camp Thomas, and a cool breeze continuously stirred made park life a delight. It was significantly a day of rest among the soldiers. All drills were omitted and the Sabbath was generally observed. In this respect the day was somewhat in contrast with many of its predecessors. The chaplains of the various regiments hold services and the Y. M. C. A. and evangelistic cohorts were actively at work. The reverence with which these services were listened to and the general good order which prevailed among the camps were significant of a high moral tone which pervaded the entire army.

The soldiers were forbidden to congregate at points of amusement and practically all remained in camp with the exception of a considerable number who had permission to spend the day on Lookout mountain.

SPANISH INFORMERS.

One Believed to Be in Camp Merritt, San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 20.—The greatest excitement prevailed in Camp Merritt over the report that leaked out to the effect that one of the most noted and daring of Spanish spies had been captured in camp. It was reported that the men had enlisted in one of the regular regiments of infantry.

An investigation of the rumor revealed the fact that the spy has not as yet been apprehended, but it is known that the government has recently received reliable information that leads it to believe that Spain has informers in Camp Merritt.

It can be reliably stated that the government fears a certain well known informer, whose name for the present is withheld. It is known that the government has information that leads it to believe that this man is in San Francisco with the purpose of enlisting in one of the regiments, even if he has not already done so.

The man is said to have been secretly employed by De Lome, when he was in Washington, and is the direct agent of Sagasta.

Adjutant General Corbin.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Adjutant General Corbin characterizes as absurd the published report that he would be given an important command at the front and in a measure would succeed Gen. Miles in the direction of military affairs. Such a thing, he said, had never entered his mind or so far as he knew that of any one else in authority. He had never heard it intimated from any reliable source that Gen. Miles might be relieved of some of his duties, and he did not believe that such a thing was ever considered. And even were it true it was beyond reason, he added, that his (Corbin's) position would be changed in consequence.

General Miles.

Washington, June 20.—With reference to the report that he is to take personal command of the American expedition which is to be sent to Porto Rico, General Miles said yesterday that the matter of his future movement was in this respect too indefinite to discuss. "I expect to go to both Porto Rico and Cuba at some time, but I cannot now say when."

It seems impossible to get those cables cut so effectively that Blanco's messages cannot get over them.

The tests being made with the dynamite gun boat Vesuvius may cause a complete revolution in the matter of war ships as did the building of the Monitor during the civil war. It so it will be the second time that American genius has revolutionized the war systems of the world.

GENERAL JASPER PACKARD, editor of the New Albany Tribune, files his objection to the proof reader who allowed his name to appear as the editor of the New Albany Ledger. We don't blame him. Not that we have anything against the Ledger, but an editor who puts his ability and individuality into his paper as Gen. Packard does into the Tribune, deserves to be put in his proper place.

The way the applications for the new bond issue are coming in is very gratifying to the officials who have the matter in charge. The probabilities are that the issue will be very largely over subscribed. About one in five of the subscriptions are made by women who are supposed to know what a bargain is when it is advertised. The promptness with which the loan is taken up is certainly an excellent object lesson for the old world, and is a remarkable illustration of the faith of the American people in their government.

SEYMOUR is to be congratulated on the cleanliness of her brick streets. In some of our neighboring cities, where thousands of dollars have been spent on street improvements, no effort is made to keep streets clean. The dirt and filth is allowed to accumulate from day to day, making the improved streets less attractive to the eye and more dangerous as a menace to the health of the city than were the old gravel streets. But Seymour's brick streets are constantly swept and kept in as good condition as the sidewalks on either side of the street thus adding very greatly to their beauty and usefulness.

A Noteworthy Coincidence.

A coincidence worthy of remark was disclosed this morning in a letter received by the Blish Milling Co. from the agents for their flour in Scotland. Messrs. Mowat Bros., Glasgow, Scotland, handle the brands of flour made by the Blish Mill and in their letter, they say: "It is a curious fact that Messrs. Jebb & Son, who get their furniture from Seymour are our next door neighbors, and it is a curious coincidence that two firms in Glasgow who get things from Seymour are next door to one another. We thought we were the sole firm in Glasgow who got things from Seymour, but seemingly not."

Messrs. Jebb & Son handle the goods of the Seymour Furniture Co. So the output of Seymour's neighboring factories are found for sale in adjoining salerooms in a foreign land.

READY TO GIVE UP.

H. H. COLLIS THOUGHT HE WOULD HAVE TO STOP WORK.

He Writes a Letter in Which He Gives Advice To People Who are Suffering From Kidney Troubles.

The way in which kidney diseases are increasing in the number of cases year by year would be extremely startling were it not for the fact that at the time when wrong living had multiplied cases, scientific inquiry has discovered the natural remedy for all disorders of the kidneys.

While working on new lines, with new ingredients, John Morrow, the noted American chemist, discovered Morrow's Kidneys, and they are rapidly becoming the standard remedy for all kidney troubles as soon as the evil appears, and they cure the most obstinate cases of long standing where many physicians have failed and taken them as directed.

Out of hundreds of letters from grateful users of Morrow Kidneys, this one from H. H. Collis is typical. Mr. Collis is a pressman with the Barrett Publishing Co., and lives at 227 South Center Street, Springfield, Ohio.

"I had such a pain in my back I could not rest at night, and could not get relief. I tried all the kidney remedies I have ever heard of, but none of them ever did me any good. My urinary organs and kidneys were in such a condition that I was ready to give up. I could not handle my plates or forms at all. I heard of Morrow's Kidneys, and have taken two boxes, and I cannot fully express my gratitude to Mr. Morrow for this great cure. I am a new man now, and feel well. I am full of life and energy. My life is very dear to me. No one suffering from Morrow's Kidneys should one minute but get Morrow's Kidneys, and take them as directed, and a cure is sure to follow."

Ask your dealer for Kidneys, in yellow box. If he does not keep them, you can get them of the Herb Medicine Co., Springfield, O., postpaid 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

A Quick Witted Baptist.

One of the candidates for the state senate down in Jefferson county, Ala., was a prominent Baptist, and he expected his fellow churchmen to help push him along. The story goes that he was campaigning on a country beat and had the good fortune to fall in with a whole congregation of Baptists. Whether a prayer meeting had just been held or what the occasion of the gathering was is not known. About this time a light shower came up, and the candidate at once raised a large umbrella which he was carrying.

"You are not afraid of this little shower, are you, Brother?" remarked one of the Baptists, standing near.

"Not at all," responded the quick witted candidate, "but you know I am opposed to all forms of 'sprinkling'."

He carried that beat solidly.—New Orleans Times-Democrat

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

The entire dome of J. H. LAPEARL'S Colossal Circus and Hippodrome tent is a busy net work of aerial apparatus for the presentation of a myriad of sensational and thrilling aerial displays by the most daring and fearless high air performers of both Europe and America. So great is the number of aerial acts presented that as many as eight different specialties of this character are given at the same time: the immense dome of the amphitheater being literally alive with the most daring and skillful exhibits. Prominent among the many high class aerial champions are the famous LAPEARL CHILDREN in the most daring aerial act extant. Introducing during their display the most extraordinary and perilous mid air evolutions consisting of headlong dives, somersaults, pirouettes, and intricate rotations from one swinging bar to another, and bird like flight into each others outstretched arms, forty feet away. The agility displayed in these bird like flights would seem incredible if not publicly performed. Though there is apparent a deftness and exact nicety of precision, the eye is no more capable of carrying to the mind an idea of the intricate calculations of the performers than it would be to follow a single spoke in a rapidly revolving wheel. Never before has a series of feats of such unquestioned daring, such contempt of danger of such recklessness, been presented to the public. These enormous shows will exhibit at Seymour June 23. 18, 20, 22

R. B. Carter, editor of the Smithville News and A. M. McCormick, of Smithville, came here today with the body of their mother, Mrs. Martha Carter, for burial.

DIED.

Mrs. Martha Carter died at 3 o'clock Saturday evening June 18, 1898, at her home at Smithville, Monroe county with cancer of the stomach, aged sixty-eight years. She was an excellent lady and a zealous member of the M. E. church. The remains were brought here this forenoon in charge of her brother-in-law, Paschal Carter accompanied by several friends and relatives. The remains were buried in Riverview cemetery by the side of her husband Wilford Carter, who died in 1897. The relatives have the sympathy of their host of friends.

An infant child of B. F. Lucas died Sunday evening at 6 o'clock June 19, 1898 with whooping cough and spinal trouble aged three months. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence on Indianapolis avenue, between Third and Fourth streets. Elder Thomas Jones will conduct the funeral services.

A Navy of Hobsons. To get back to Lieutenant Hobson's bravery again, it seems to us that the fact that 4,000 other men in the navy were anxious to go along with him proves that the navy is made up almost entirely of Hobsons.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

No Change at Manila—Morro Shelled Possibly—Enoher Attempt at Cable Cutting.

KEY WEST, June 20.—Naval officers here say Capt. Gen. Blanco has notified the American blockading fleet that hereafter he will recognize no flag of truce.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Reports from Manila state that the situation there is unchanged. The insurgents are unable to take the city owing to lack of field guns, and besides Admiral Dewey will not permit them to do so. All foreigners are leaving on neutral ships. The transports with the United States troops are expected to arrive today.

New York, June 20.—A dispatch to the Herald indicates that Sampson having learned that Hobson and his fellow prisoners had been removed from Morro castle had immediately demolished that fortification.

The havoc wrought by the Vesuvius at night has evidently caused the Spaniards to desert their guns by night, as when the St. Louis put in within 300 yards of shore Friday night and spent sometime trying to secure the Kings' cable not a shot was fired.

Seymour and the Bond Issue. An inquiry this afternoon indicated that on Saturday and today Seymour citizens had subscribed for about $5,000 of the new issues of government bonds. The subscriptions were mostly in small amounts. Several are expecting to take some of the bonds and the probabilities are that before the time expires Seymour will have from $25,000 to $50,000 invested with Uncle Sam.

COURT NOTES. Pat Rooney was fined and costed $10.05 by Judge Hoover this forenoon on the charge of profanity.

A new and peculiar, fatal disease has appeared among the horses near Noblesville. The animal is first attacked with a profuse perspiration. This is followed by a chill, then the head swells, there is a heavy discharge of bloody mucus and death speedily ensues. The disease is extremely contagious and is usually fatal in few hours after the attack. Many have died from the effects of the new malady.—Greencastle Banner Times.

Attorney J. H. Kamman will leave in the morning for a ten days visit with his parents at Holland.

Horse Stolen.

Saturday night a fine sorrel mare, four years old, belonging to J. M. Brown was stolen from the pasture lot. A camp of Gipsies was located adjoining the pasture last week and it is supposed that could tell something of the whereabouts of the mare. They were heard to remark the fine appearance of the animal a number of times, and when some of the town boys were swimming near the place, some of the Gipsy children were there and stated that when they left they were going to take the horse for a match to one of theirs. Mr. Brown has refused an offer of $75 for the horse recently.

Electric Fans in Sleeping Cars. The Baltimore & Ohio South Western railway officials have solved the problem of cooling sleeping cars in stations at night. At Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis this line has sleeping cars placed in the stations at 10 p. m. which do not depart until after midnight, and in order to make them comfortable and cool have placed 16 inch rotary electric fans in each end of the sleepers, thus removing the heated and impure air from all parts of the car. The fans have been in operation about two weeks and have been the subject of many favorable comments from the traveling public.

Dying in Poverty.

The Worthington Sun, of last week, makes the statement that Stephen Horsey is dying in poverty in the wilds of Martin county. Horsey was one of the leading spirits in the Knights of the Golden Circle during the war of the rebellion. He with several others was tried for treason and condemned to be hanged in 1864, but was pardoned by President Johnson. He returned to Martin county poor in purse and broken in spirit. From that time he was practically an outcast, and a few years ago was engaged in running a little apple brandy still in the wild hill country of Martin county. His beard had grown until it had completely covered his face and he looked for all the world like a "wild man of the woods." He always claimed that the organization was not in opposition to the United States government and that his downfall was brought about by perjured testimony.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by himself as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters and to my great joy and surprise the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at W. F. Peter's drug store.

J. H. LaPearl's Great Two Ring Circus. Novelty, excellence, originality and magnitude are striking characteristics of J. H. LaPearl's circus performances this season. In this department are seen a multitude of new features; so many new displays are presented this year as to give the circus a new character throughout. So vast is the array of arctic talent that for three solid hours, two rings and elevated stage, a world of aerial apparatus, and the immense surrounding race course, are occupied with sensational displays participated in by over 100 peerless artists. New features are the rule, the old time worn numbers have been discarded to make room for the many superb attractions gathered from all parts of the world. In the two rings, elevated stage and upon the aerial apparatus contained in J. H. LaPearl's Colossal Pavilion, the champions of every country meet in friendly rivalry for supremacy, and compose the most varied and grandest arctic exhibition ever seen under canvas. Will exhibit at Seymour June 23.

Notice.

All bicycle riders are warned about disobeying the provisions of the bicycle ordinance of the city. Eight miles an hour and four miles around corners is the limit for speed. All riding on sidewalks is also prohibited. I will pay anyone fifty cents for the information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person riding a bicycle or driving a horse in violation of the city ordinances.

The well-dressed man, that man that procures his styles, exquisitely fitting, well made suits of clothing from Riehm carries with him a mark of distinction and commands respect wherever he goes. Horse Stolen.

Saturday night a fine sorrel mare, four years old, belonging to J. M. Brown was stolen from the pasture lot.

A camp of Gipsies was located adjoining the pasture last week and it is supposed that could tell something of the whereabouts of the mare. They were heard to remark the fine appearance of the animal a number of times, and when some of the town boys were swimming near the place, some of the Gipsy children were there and stated that when they left they were going to take the horse for a match to one of theirs. Mr. Brown has refused an offer of $75 for the horse recently.

Electric Fans in Sleeping Cars.

The Baltimore & Ohio South Western railway officials have solved the problem of cooling sleeping cars in stations at night. At Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis this line has sleeping cars placed in the stations at 10 p. m. which do not depart until after midnight, and in order to make them comfortable and cool have placed 16 inch rotary electric fans in each end of the sleepers, thus removing the heated and impure air from all parts of the car. The fans have been in operation about two weeks and have been the subject of many favorable comments from the traveling public.

Dying in Poverty.

The Worthington Sun, of last week, makes the statement that Stephen Horsey is dying in poverty in the wilds of Martin county. Horsey was one of the leading spirits in the Knights of the Golden Circle during the war of the rebellion. He with several others was tried for treason and condemned to be hanged in 1864, but was pardoned by President Johnson. He returned to Martin county poor in purse and broken in spirit. From that time he was practically an outcast, and a few years ago was engaged in running a little apple brandy still in the wild hill country of Martin county. His beard had grown until it had completely covered his face and he looked for all the world like a "wild man of the woods." He always claimed that the organization was not in opposition to the United States government and that his downfall was brought about by perjured testimony.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by himself as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters and to my great joy and surprise the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at W. F. Peter's drug store.

J. H. LaPearl's Great Two Ring Circus.

Novelty, excellence, originality and magnitude are striking characteristics of J. H. LaPearl's circus performances this season. In this department are seen a multitude of new features; so many new displays are presented this year as to give the circus a new character throughout. So vast is the array of arctic talent that for three solid hours, two rings and elevated stage, a world of aerial apparatus, and the immense surrounding race course, are occupied with sensational displays participated in by over 100 peerless artists. New features are the rule, the old time worn numbers have been discarded to make room for the many superb attractions gathered from all parts of the world. In the two rings, elevated stage and upon the aerial apparatus contained in J. H. LaPearl's Colossal Pavilion, the champions of every country meet in friendly rivalry for supremacy, and compose the most varied and grandest arctic exhibition ever seen under canvas. Will exhibit at Seymour June 23.

"The Apparel Oft Proclaims the Man."

Is the wise maxim handed down to us by the immortal bard. The well-dressed man, that man that procures his styles, exquisitely fitting, well made suits of clothing from Riehm carries with him a mark of distinction and commands respect wherever he goes. The bicyclist, golfer or sportsman fitted here even looks a higher type of man than the general run of sportsmen.

Spain's Saffron Flag Lowered to Half Mast over Morro Castle as a Notice to Americans That They Are Dead—A Graphic Description of the Latest Attack on the Harbor Defenses—Spanish Officers' Brave Act in Urging His Men to Stand by Their Guns—No Casualties on Any of the American Ships—Sunday at Chickamauga—Spanish Informers at San Francisco—Appointments from Indiana and Kentucky to the Regular Army.

Off Santiago de Cuba, June 18, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 20.—A careful inspection of the fortifications along the coast of the hills defending Santiago harbor since the bombardment Thursday morning shows that the American gunners spread wreck and ruin everywhere. Some of the batteries were demolished beyond repair. The vultures, which circle on level wings over the hills as thick as sparrows around a chimney for hours after the firing ceased, furnished gruesome evidence of the fatality among the Spanish soldiers. Hundreds of troops could be seen from the ships digging in mounds of earth piled up by the explosion of the projectiles.

ONE OF THE OREGON'S 13-INCH BEAUTIES. One of the heavy guns for bodies, while their heads were fanned by the

In olden times mistaken enthusiasts used to inflict upon themselves all manner of painful and horrible tortures. Men scourged themselves with whips and hot irons, and rubbed vinegar in to the wounds and wore hair-cloths on their heads. They neglected their health and neglected health means physical force of the body. It means slow starvation. Because a man forces food into a weak and impaired stomach, it does not follow that he feeds his body. The life-giving elements of the food taken into an impaired stomach are not assimilated into the blood. Instead, the impurities of the sluggish liver and bowels are taken up and carried to all parts of the body. The consequence is that the body is not only starved but poisoned. The immediate result is physical suffering from which the old time zealot would have drawn back in horror. The final result is disease and death. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a scientific remedy that acts according to natural laws. It is not a violent spur to nature or a mere artificial appetizer. It gently, but surely and permanently, promotes the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It creates appetite, makes the assimilation of the food perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It builds up firm muscular flesh. It cures nervous exhaustion, debility, sleeplessness and all the ailments that follow in their train. I found a medicine store. Accept no substitute. It may be represented as "just as good."

"I can heartily recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets to anyone troubled with indigestion and torpid liver," writes M. G. Crider, Esq., of Leonard, Harlan Co., Ky. "My disease was chronic. Our family physician could do nothing for me. I could not walk nor help myself. I could not eat anything but it caused a horrible distress and gnawing in my stomach. I have taken four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of your 'Pleasant Pellets' and can work all day."

wings of the black scavengers of the battlefield. There were two spots, one on the east and the other on the west of the harbor entrance, which were denuded of the foliage. The hilltops seem literally blown away. These marked the places where the 200-pound charges of gun cotton blown by the Vesuvius had landed.

Hobson and His Men Probably Killed. An ominous token of death flew from Morro castle. Spain's saffron flag was half masted for several hours. The significance of this is not known. It is not customary to half mast flags, but possibly some Spanish leader was killed by the heavy fire of our guns, though some officers of the squadron believe that the flag was half masted as a notification to the Americans that Lieutenant Hobson and his brave men were dead. If such is the case they must have been wantonly murdered. The Spanish might seek to lay their death to the bombardment, but not a shot from the American ships struck the fortress.

Neither Admiral Sampson or Commodore Schley believe that Lieutenant Hobson and his party have been killed. We have seventeen prisoners taken at Guantanamo, including a lieutenant, besides a number in the United States for reprisals or exchange.

There was evident demoralization among the Spanish troops during the bombardment. Officers could be seen, with drawn swords, driving the men to the guns, but even they could not be forced to stay so long as our guns were directed at them. The 15 minutes' night work of the Vesuvius had shattered their nerves.

It is believed by some that the 13-inch projectile fired from the Texas, which was reported to have exploded the powder magazine in one of the western batteries, did not fall in the battery, but went beyond and blew up one of the ships in the harbor.

A dramatic incident of the bombardment was the act of a Spanish officer, who bravely ran along the parapet under a heavy fire encouraging the men to stand by their guns. Shot and shell rained about him, and after one terrific explosion he was seen no more and the parapet had disappeared. He could not have escaped death.

From the forefront of the Brooklyn, 2,900 yards distant, the men in the grounds could be noticed, but a minute later dust and flying debris would take their places, and when the smoke cleared away, only a spot of red earth could be seen—guns and gunners had been swept away. It was the most deadly and destructive bombardment of the war thus far. Scarcely a shot from the big guns of the squadron went astray. The aim of our gunners was superb and not only were the coast forts annihilated, but the batteries on Cayo Smith, up the harbor, were destroyed. Had all the ships used smokeless powder, as did the New Orleans, there would remain no signs of guns or fortifications to indicate that there had ever been any defenses there.

There were no casualties in the fleet, although the ships held a fixed position, as if inviting the Spaniards to fire upon them. The words of Rear Admiral Sampson were: "First silence the batteries on the shore and then continue firing until the fortifications are reduced."

In thirty-eight minutes the order was given to cease firing and the message went to each ship from the admiral: "Well done;" and the officers and men turned in for breakfast.

The first shot of the New York landed full and fair on the top of the hills to the east, where the gunners were already at work erecting new pieces. The earth seemed to rise in a cloud, and when the 13-inch shells of the Iowa and the 13-inch beauties of the Oregon landed squarely and fairly a great cheer went up from the ships.

The Western squadron got into line and began firing before the eastern one did, and the effect of the shots could be plainly seen. The Spanish gunners at the batteries could be noted and a quick fire was returned, but only for a brief time did they withstand the terrible assault of the fleet.

CUBAN PILOT'S TALK.

Says He Entered Santiago and Found a Garrison of 15,000 Men.

Key West, June 20.—Juan Santos, a Cuban pilot, who arrived here on board an American warship, reports that he entered Santiago de Cuba and found there a Spanish garrison of 15,000 men. He adds that the vessels of Admiral Cervera's fleet lying at that port are the armored cruisers Christobal Colon, Vizcaya and Almirante Oquendo, two small cruisers, two torpedo boats and the Reina Mercedes, which had been stripped of her guns to reinforce the land batteries.

He says that the Spanish war vessels were fully manned, but that the crews were discouraged and disappointed. He thinks that Morro castle is the only fort not silenced by Rear Admiral Sampson, who, he says, keeps a steady watch and opens fire as soon as work is attempted by the Spaniards on shore. Morro castle, he alleges, though Lieutenant Hobson and the other brave men of the Merrimac are now confined, was not fired upon, the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius sending her projectiles over the bluff into the channel. The land approaches to Santiago de Cuba are heavily guarded, but the artillery is insignificant.

Other information given by the pilot is that one Spanish colonel and 17 men, who were taken prisoners by the Cubans at Guantanamo, are on the collier Als-

renda and have been offered in exchange for Lieutenant Hobson and his companions.

SECOND LIEUTENANTS.

Men Who Will Be Appointed to Positions in the Regular Army.

Washington, June 20.—Adjutant General Corbin has made public the names of the 195 young men who have been selected for appointment as second lieutenants in the regular army, to fill vacancies created by the act of congress adopting the three battalion organization for the infantry arm of the service and the addition of one second lieutenant to all batteries when filled to war strength. Each of the 195 men selected will be obliged to undergo an examination that will be a thorough test of his mental and physical qualifications for the army service. Those who pass the examination will be nominated by the president to the senate.

The following have been selected from Indiana and Kentucky:

Indiana—Harry R. Campbell, mechanical and electrical engineer; Victor Garrigus, private Indiana volunteer; Elijah B. Martindale, Jr., Graduate Culver Military academy; Ivers W. Leonard, captain Indiana volunteers; William Lewis Hodgkins, honor graduate Purdue University.

Kentucky—John K. Proctor, Jr., Benjamin H. Watkins, graduate Williamsburg academy of Kentucky; J. T. Geary, honor graduate Agricultural and Mechanical college.

Kan. The Blockade.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 20.—It is known here that three large cargoes of supplies have succeeded in running the blockade and great quantities of food have entered Havana by way of the Isle of Pines.

Jellicoe Coal Mines.

Louisville, June 20.—All the coal mines in the Jellicoe district will soon be transferred to an English syndicate. At a meeting between those interested in the property and representatives of British capital in Knoxville last Friday the deal was practically consummated, and all that remains now to be done is to receive the money and transfer the deeds.

WRECKED

Passenger Train in Which Three Were Killed and Several Injured.

Roanoke, Va., June 20.—Norfolk and Western passenger train No. 4 was wrecked yesterday two miles west of Shawsville. Three were killed and several injured. The dead are: Engineer Al Horner, Bristol, Va.; Fireman Ed Sadler, Bristol, Va.; Mail Clerk A. S. Frances, Marion, Va.

The injured: Mail Clerk I. V. Gill, Lynchburg, Va., seriously; two express messengers, names not known; several passengers, names not known.

New Typesetting Machine.

Louisville, Ky., June 20.—Frank B. Converse, of this city, has invented a typesetting machine. It differs from the linotype, as it sets up a line in individual type, instead of molding it, and also has an automatic spacer or "justifier," which sets a line any length desired.

TERRIBLE SITUATION

Population of Gaimanera Starving and Famine Stricken.

WILL BURN THEIR HOMES

Streets Strewn With Oil and Straw For That Purpose.

PREPARED TO FLEE

Lieutenant Colonel Huntington Hourly Expects an Attack From a Spanish Force Three Thousand Five Hundred Strong—Iowa Has Joined the Fleet in Guantanamo Bay—Cuban Aid Has Proved Highly Valuable.

Off Guantanamo, June 18, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 20.—Cuban scouts reported yesterday that the inhabitants of Gaimanera have strewn the streets with straw and oil, with the intention of destroying the city and fleeing to the hills.

Gaimanera lies about four miles up the bay from Camp McCalla, under the guns of the American ships, and the situation is desperate. Starving and famine stricken, convinced of the ultimate triumph of the American arms and without faith in the protection of the Spanish soldiery, the people are determined to leave their homes in ashes behind them and seek safety in the mountains of the north. The scouts declare that the story is accurate, and say that every building in town is being rapidly prepared for the torch.

The situation of the besieged is a fearful one. The people are eating horses

Lieutenant Colonel Huntington, and mules and are scouring the hills for fruits and herbs. Occasionally brief bombardments by the American fleet leaves the helpless citizens horror-stricken, no preparations for defense being made.

It is also stated that the Spanish gunboat at Gaimanera has been loaded with inflammables and will be burned with the city, her commander declaring that she will never become an American prize.

The scouts also say that the Spanish soldiers are in almost as complete a state of panic as are the civilians and that they could easily be induced to surrender. Some of the prisoners taken by the marines also say they believe the Spanish troops are on the verge of surrender, owing to the lack of food.

Captain McCalla, of the cruiser Marblehead, and Lieutenant Colonel Huntington, in command of the marines, are not to be sure, however, of the reported Spanish rout. They received information yesterday that a general attack by a force of 3,500 Spanish guerrillas on Camp McCalla is contemplated within a night or two. Every preparation was made last night for an expected assault.

When the despatch boat Dandy arrived in Guantanamo harbor at 8 o'clock, the hills about the marine camp were brilliant under the shifting rays of the searchlights of the Marblehead, Dolphin and Scorpion and the marines were lying in the rifle pits, at the guns, ready and anxious for battle, but the night passed without the firing of a shot. The same watchful care was exercised to day, as Captain McCalla is convinced that an attack is likely to occur at any moment.

The Iowa joined the fleet here yesterday and later the admiral came over on the flagship to inspect the fortifications and confer with Captain McCalla and Lieutenant Colonel Huntington.

The coast in the vicinity of Guantanamo is dotted with the bright hued Cuban flag. Numerous camps of the insurgents, which have been established along the beach between Santiago and this place, are used by the admiral as means of communication with the Cubans in the interior. The aid which these men have given has proved highly valuable to the Americans.

Another body of five Spaniards was captured yesterday by Ensign A. A. Pratt of the Marblehead. While cruising in a steam launch outside the bay he picked up a 30-foot sloop containing a Spanish captain by name of Torres and four sailors.

They said they were on their way to Guantanamo to get a supply of oil for the lighthouse at Cape Mayal, but papers found on the sloop proved that they had been sent to obtain information relative to the American forces. The crew of the sloop asserted that they had been ill fed and frightfully ill-treated by the Spanish commander of the Cape Mayal forces.

There was a brief bombardment of a blockhouse up the bay by the battleship Oregon yesterday, and it is believed that during the firing at least a score of Spaniards were killed. Scouting parties report that the blockhouse was completely destroyed, but that they were unable to discover any bodies, the remains of soldiers who had been killed probably having been carried off by their comrades.

MANILA.

Unconfirmed Report That the City Has Capitulated.

Paris, June 20.—The Madrid correspondent of the Temps says that it is reported there that Manila has capitulated, though the ministers have not received any news to that effect.

The correspondent also says that Senor Romero Giron, the minister of colonies, states that if Governor General Augusti has made over his power to Gen. Sandares to govern Manila, General Sandares will attempt a sortie.

According to the same authority the Spanish consuls at Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore have been ordered to organize at any cost the most rapid communication with the portions of the Archipelago still under Spanish authority.

The Spanish Squadron.

Gibraltar, June 20.—The captain of a British steamer which has arrived here says that he sighted the Spanish squadron off Cape Gata, a promontory of Spain, on the coast of Granada, forming the eastern limit of the Gulf of Algeria.

NOTED VETERAN.

Dr. M. David Logan, Who Served Under Morgan, Dead.

Danville, Ky., June 20.—Dr. M. David Logan died at the old Logan homestead, five miles from Danville, Saturday. He was 76 years of age, and had never married. Dr. Logan served in the Mexican war and in the war of the rebellion rose to a lieutenant colonelcy under General John Morgan. He was a prisoner at Johnson's Island, and also at Columbus, O. He and two of his brothers formed a part of the escort of Jefferson Davis at his attempted escape, and offered to conduct him out of the United States.

HOT SKIRMISH.

Sampson's Launches Run Into a Hornet's Nest.

Off Santiago, June 18, via Kingston, June 20.—Several attempts to find landing places for the United States troops within a distance of two miles west of Santiago have demonstrated, along with previous inquiries to the eastward, that the shore for 15 miles is lined with Spaniards. While this will not prevent a landing close to Santiago, it may entail considerable delay, as the surrounding country must be thoroughly shelled and cleared before the troops can land in safety.

Yesterday at daylight the launches of the New York and Massachusetts reconnoitered the shore between Cabanas, two miles west of the entrance of Santiago harbor, and Guayamaque, two miles further west, both of which points lie east of the range of mountains surrounding Santiago bay. The launches pushed their noses into a hornet's nest. The brush was fairly alive with Spanish troops, infantry and cavalry, and the fire opened upon the launches was so fierce that their retreat had to be covered by the Vixen and the Texas.

When the Texas asked permission of Commodore Schley to take a hand, the commodore seized the megaphone and shouted to Captain Phillips, "Yes, go in and give 'em a Jack."

The Texas landed several 4-inch shells on the battery at Cabanas, completely demolishing it.

Lieutenant Sharpe of the Vixen and Lieutenant Harlow, in command of the launches, were both complimented by Admiral Sampson for gallantry.

It is believed that the insurgents, who are in forces under the command of General Garcia about 15 miles west, will render effective aid in driving the Spanish skirmishers off the shore.

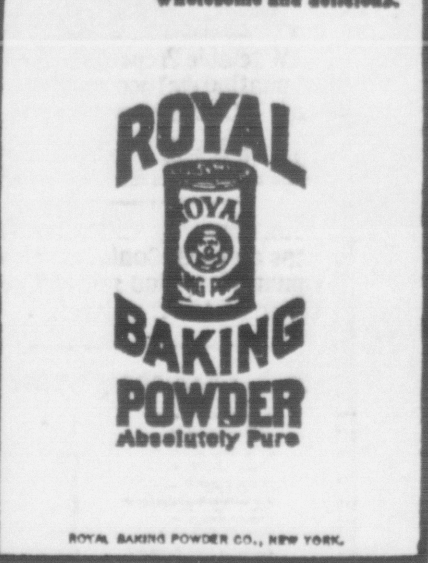

SUNDAY AT CHICKAMAUGA.

It Was Really a Day of Rest Among the Soldiers.

Chickamauga National Military Park, Ga., June 20.—Yesterday was an exceptionally beautiful day at Camp Thomas, and a cool breeze continuously astir made park life a delight. It was significantly a day of rest among the soldiers. All drills were omitted and the Sabbath was generally observed. In this respect the day was somewhat in contrast with many of its predecessors. The chaplains of the various regiments held services and the Y. M. C. A. and evangelistic cohorts were actively at work. The reverence with which these services were listened to and the general good order which prevailed among the camps were significant of a high moral tone which pervaded the entire army.

The soldiers were forbidden to congregate at points of amusement and practically all remained in camp with the exception of a considerable number who had permission to spend the day on Lookout mountain.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

SPANISH INFORMERS.

One Believed to Be in Camp Merritt, San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 20.—The greatest excitement prevailed in Camp Merritt over the report that leaked out to the effect that one of the most noted and daring of Spanish spies had been captured in camp. It was reported that the men had enlisted in one of the regular regiments of infantry.

An investigation of the rumor revealed the fact that the spy has not as yet been apprehended, but it is known that the government has recently received reliable information that leads it to believe that Spain has informers in Camp Merritt.

It can be reliably stated that the government fears a certain well known informer, whose name for the present is withheld. It is known that the government has information that leads it to believe that this man is in San Francisco with the purpose of enlisting in one of the regiments, even if he has not already done so.

The man is said to have been secretly employed by De Lome, when he was in Washington, and is the direct agent of Sagasta.

Adjutant General Corbin.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Adjutant General Corbin characterizes as absurd the published report that he would be given an important command at the front and in a measure would succeed Gen. Miles in the direction of military affairs. Such a thing, he said, had never entered his mind or so far as he knew that of any one else in authority. He had never heard it intimated from any reliable source that Gen. Miles might be relieved of some of his duties, and he did not believe that such a thing was ever considered. And even were it true it was beyond reason, he added, that his (Corbin's) position would be changed in consequence.

General Miles.

Washington, June 20.—With reference to the report that he is to take personal command of the American expedition which is to be sent to Porto Rico, General Miles said yesterday that the matter of his future movement was in this respect too indefinite to discuss. "I expect to go to both Porto Rico and Cuba at some time, but I cannot now say when."

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Reports from Manila state that the situation there is unchanged. The insurgents are unable to take the city owing to lack of field guns, and besides Admiral Dewey will not permit them to do so. All foreigners are leaving on neutral ships. The transports with the United States troops are expected to arrive today.

New York, June 20.—A dispatch to the Herald indicates that Sampson having learned that Hobson and his fellow prisoners had been removed from Morro castle had immediately demolished that fortification.

The havoc wrought by the Vesuvius at night has evidently caused the Spaniards to desert their guns by night, as when the St. Louis put in within 300 yards of shore Friday night and spent sometime trying to secure the Kingston cable not a shot was fired.

Seymour and the Bond Issue.

An inquiry this afternoon indicated that on Saturday and today Seymour citizens had subscribed for about $5,000 of the new issues of government bonds. The subscriptions were mostly in small amounts. Several are expecting to take some of the bonds and the probabilities are that before the time expires Seymour will have from $25,000 to $50,000 invested with Uncle Sam.

COURT NOTES.

Pat Rooney was fined and costed $10.05 by Judge Hoover this forenoon on the charge of profanity.

A new and peculiar, fatal disease has appeared among the heres near Noblesville. The animal is first attacked with a profuse perspiration. This is followed by a chill, then the head swells, there is a heavy discharge of bloody mucous and death speedily ensues. The disease is extremely contagious and is usually fatal in few hours after the attack. Many have died from the effects of the new malady.—Greencastle Banner Times.

Attorney J. H. Kamman will leave in the morning for a ten days visit with his parents at Holland.

Horse Stolen.

Saturday night a fine sorrel mare, four years old, belonging to J. M. Brown was stolen from the pasture lot. A camp of Gipsies was located adjoining the pasture last week and it is supposed that could tell something of the whereabouts of the mare. They were heard to remark the fine appearance of the animal a number of times, and when some of the town boys were swimming near the place, some of the Gipsy children were there and stated that when they left they were going to take the horse for a match to one of theirs. Mr. Brown has refused an offer of $75 for the horse recently.

Electric Fans in Sleeping Cars.

The Baltimore & Ohio South Western railway officials have solved the problem of cooling sleeping cars in stations at night. At Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis this line has sleeping cars placed in the stations at 10 p. m. which do not depart until after midnight, and in order to make them comfortable and cool have placed 16 inch rotary electric fans in each end of the sleepers, thus removing the heated and impure air from all parts of the car. The fans have been in operation about two weeks and have been the subject of many favorable comments from the traveling public.

Dying in Poverty.

The Worthington Sun, of last week, makes the statement that Stephen Horsey is dying in poverty in the wilds of Martin county. Horsey was one of the leading spirits in the Knights of the Golden Circle during the war of the rebellion. He with several others was tried for treason and condemned to be hanged in 1864, but was pardoned by President Johnson. He returned to Martin county poor in purse and broken in spirit. From that time he was practically an outcast, and a few years ago was engaged in running a little apple brandy still in the wild hill country of Martin county. His beard had grown until it had completely covered his face and he looked for all the world like a "wild man of the woods." He always claimed that the organization was not in opposition to the United States government and that his downfall was brought about by perjured testimony.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by himself as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters and to my great joy and surprise the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at W. F. Peter's drug store.

J. H. LaPearl's Great Two Ring Circus.

Novelty, excellence, originality and magnitude are striking characteristics of J. H. LaPearl's circus performances this season. In this department are seen a multitude of new features; so many new displays are presented this year as to give the circus a new character throughout. So vast is the array of arctic talent that for three solid hours, two rings and elevated stage, a world of aerial apparatus, and the immense surrounding race course, are occupied with sensational displays participated in by over 100 peerless artists. New features are the rule, the old time worn numbers have been discarded to make room for the many superb attractions gathered from all parts of the world. In the two rings, elevated stage and upon the aerial apparatus contained in J. H. LaPearl's Colossal Pavilion, the champions of every country meet in friendly rivalry for supremacy, and compose the most varied and grandest arctic exhibition ever seen under canvas. Will exhibit at Seymour June 23.

"The Apparel Oft Proclaims the Man."

Is the wise maxim handed down to us by the immortal bard. The well-dressed man, that man that procures his styles, exquisitely fitting, well made suits of clothing from Riehm carries with him a mark of distinction and commands respect wherever he goes. The bicyclist, golfer or sportsman fitted here even looks a higher type of man than the general run of sportsmen.
